

RAM IN THE THICKET

Written & Performed by: Joycelyn Peart - Lawson

Introduction: Every disappointment is an appointment with the Almighty. Just be faithful, be strong he'll set you free.

1. So many times I've faltered and it seems like all is lost, till I turn my eyes to heaven and cry, "Lord I'll bear my cross. But I need your help and protection or else all will be lost." I shouted, "Lord I'll go with you whatever the cost."

Chorus

For there's a ram in the thicket there for thee, just hold on be faithful, he'll set you free. Every disappointment is an appointment with the Almighty.
Just be faithful, be strong he'll set you free.

2. I know a man of promise his name was Abraham. He was told by God to sacrifice his one and only son. Isaac cried, "Here is the altar dad, but where is the lamb?" He'll provide that special offering just hold on.

So Abraham laid his son on the altar, he stretched forth his mighty hand, he was just about to slay his son when God said, hold on. Lay not your hands upon that child don't do him any harm. God said, "Lift up your eyes see there your lamb."

Every disappointment is an appointment with the Almighty.
Just be faithful, be strong he'll set you free. (Repeat)

Just be faithful, be strong he'll set you free. (Repeat)
